FEDERAL GENERAL ELECTIONS, 1958

PREFATORY NOTE

The first Federal Parliament was brought into being by a General Election held in 1958. Preparation for this election began in 1957. As no Federal laws were in existence, the laws in force in each constituent territory were used, as was permitted by Sub Section 2 of Section 1 of the West Indies (Federation) Order in Council 1957 and Article 107 of the Constitution of the West Indies. Under these the local legislation was adapted and modified to meet the needs of the Federal General Election. Preparatory to commencing the elections the Standing Electoral Districts Delimitation Committee recommended the division of Trinidad and Tobago into ten constituencies to suit the provision in the Federal constitution of ten seats. According to approved procedure regulations defining these constituencies were laid before the Legislative Council for thirty days from the 6th September, 1957. As there was no negative resolution during this period, the regulations were submitted to the Governor in Council, passed on 23rd October, 1957 and published on 14th November, 1957. The franchise for electors was that prescribed by the Trinidad and Tobago (Constitution) Order in Council 1950.

The procedure adopted was that the enumeration was carried out as if for a Legislative Council General Election in each of the 24 constituencies in Trinidad and Tobago and then the separate polling division lists were arranged according to the new Federal Constituencies and were used for the Federal Election. By Proclamation the enumeration commenced on the 2nd December, 1957. The lists were prepared within 3 months and were brought into force by a second Proclamation on the 1st March, 1958.

Writs were issued on 7th February, 1958, and were made returnable on the 9th April, 1958. The date fixed for nomination was 3rd March, 1958. A Poll was held on the 25th March, 1958, and there were contests in all ten constituencies. The returns were published in Royal Gazette, Volume 127 No. 40, dated 11th April, 1958.
