RETURNING OFFICERS GET WRITS FOR THA ELECTIONS

With the date for the Tobago House of Assembly Elections having been declared as Monday January 25th 2021, Returning Officers were presented with their respective Writs, giving them the authority to conduct these elections on behalf of the Elections and Boundaries Commission.

Chairman of the Elections and Boundaries Commission (EBC), Mark Ramkerrysingh, in addressing the Returning Officers, reminded them of the importance of their role and the part they play in safeguarding our democracy. Ramkerrysingh also stated that every election is to be treated with equal import and to be considered national in scope. Ramkerrysingh noted that the EBC is very well respected in the fraternity of election management bodies, having a reputation of conducting free and fair elections, and that the Members of the Commission expect nothing less in these upcoming polls.

The Returning Officers were presented with their Writs by Mr. Ramkerrysingh at the Shaw Park Complex, Shaw Park Tobago, in accordance with Election Rule 3 of the Representation of the People Act, Chapter 2:01.
